

ON THE COVER

Edin Barrera, SJ, and Ryen Dwyer, SJ, at Loyola University Chicago, where both Jesuits are in first studies (Photo by Diane Smutny)

A Jesuit Lawyer

Page 8

As a Jesuit and a lawyer, Nate Romano (third from left) seeks justice for people on the margins.

Also pictured: Jesuits Tony Homsy, Pat Douglas, and Paddy Gilger.

For additional content and more information, connect with us online:

WWW.JESUITSMIDWEST.ORG

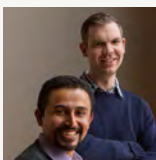

Search Midwest Jesuits on Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube

Visit our photo galleries at midwestjesuits.smugmug.com

JesuitPrayer.org

- Daily Scripture, Ignatian Reflection, and Ignatian Prayer
- Free iPhone, iPad, & Android Apps
- Submit a prayer request
- Download prayer cards
- Free daily email

Page 10

For Others

Last December, Edin Barrera, SJ, received a life-changing gift: a new kidney from his Jesuit brother, Ryen Dwyer.

Page 12

Social Entrepreneurship: Not Just Business as Usual

Jesuits are leading the way in social entrepreneurship, a bold new frontier using business practices to work with the poor.

Page 14

Transforming Lives

Christine Curran, regional director of the Ignatian Volunteer Corps Chicago, guides women and men through Jesuit-inspired service to people in need.

Page 15

Finding God on a TV Screen

As a Jesuit screenwriter, Fr. Jim McDermott discovers grace in surprising places, even his favorite TV shows.

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

News 2-3

Pope Francis Answers Little Kids' Big Questions 4-5

A Heart on Fire – Invitations to Encounter 6

A Jesuit's Journey – Grace upon Grace 7

Social and International – Responding to a Pope of Surprises and JRS Launches Mercy in Motion Campaign 16-17

Assignments and In Memoriam 18-19

Spirituality – Meeting Homeless Jesus 20

Advancement – 2016 International Pilgrimages and The Circle of Companions 21